

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS
2020 HIV/AIDS NURSING CERTIFICATION BOARD

Please consider nominating yourself or an ACRN/AACRN colleague for the HIV/AIDS Nursing Certification Board. Through active participation on the Board, the nominee will be influential in shaping the practice of HIV/AIDS nursing across the nation and around the world.

To be considered as a candidate for the HIV/AIDS Nursing Certification Board, the nominee must be:

1. an AIDS Certified Registered Nurse or an Advanced AIDS Certified Registered Nurse;
2. committed to fostering excellence in HIV/AIDS nursing through certification;
3. willing to volunteer approximately 4-6 hours a month to HANCB related activities (quarterly board conference calls, committee conference calls, recertification audits, writing test items); and
4. committed to attending the Annual HANCB Annual Meeting and to participate in HANCB-related board meetings and activities at the ANAC National Conference.

Currently, there is minimal financial assistance for travel related expenses for HANCB members to attend the Annual ANAC Conference. The financial expenses for attending the annual strategic planning retreat are not covered by HANCB.

Type of Nomination:

- self-nomination nomination of an ACRN/AACRN colleague
